MS WHO DOESN'T KNOW MRS. FELLER? QU

MEMORIES LIVE ON AS THE SEASONS GO

An open textbook, an eager student and an understanding teacher--these are the essential ingredients for a successful mathematics department. We at Onsted High School feel we have all three. For the past 23 years, junior high mathematics and Algebra have been taught by an outstanding woman, who, by stressing exactness and neatness, has graduated many promising students into higher mathematics.

Chaperoning buses, taking tickets at basketball games, working in the concession stand, and being a class advisor are but a few of the activities that involve the services of this untiring and patient woman. For her rare ability to combine fun with work, to add pleasure and satisfaction to learning, to be a true friend, and to sacrifice her time for us, we dedicate SEASONS 1971 to you, Mrs. Lucille Feller.

SEASONSTED SENIOR REIGNS GO BY. OUR M

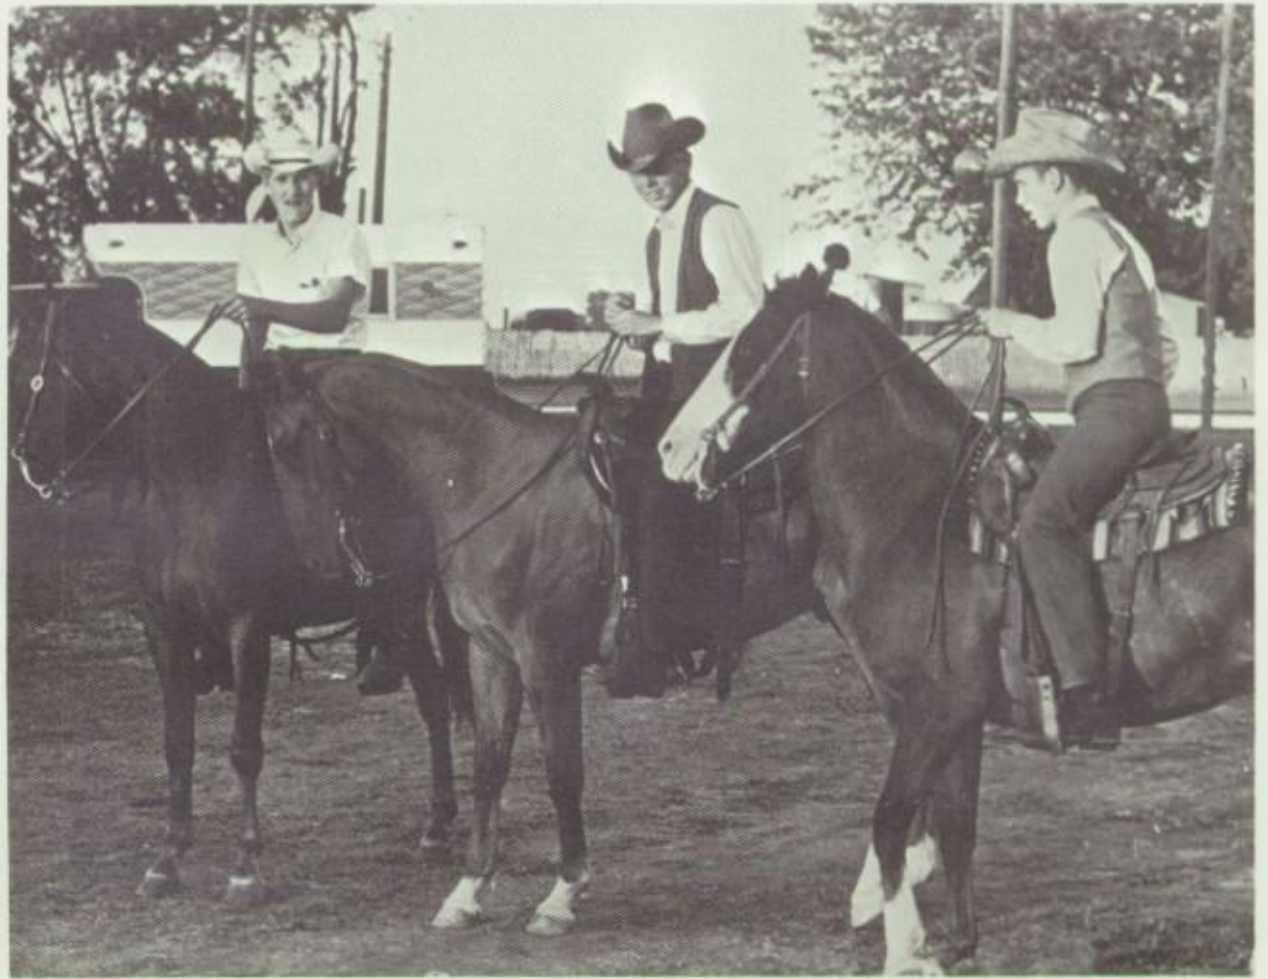

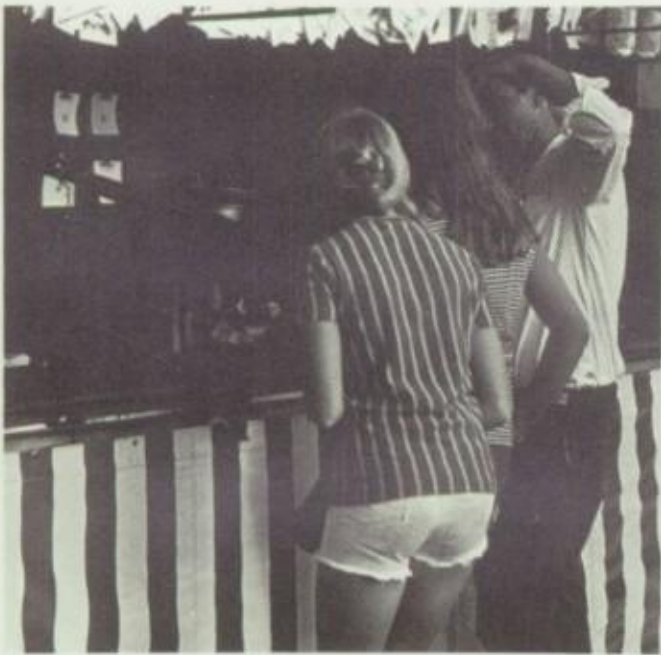

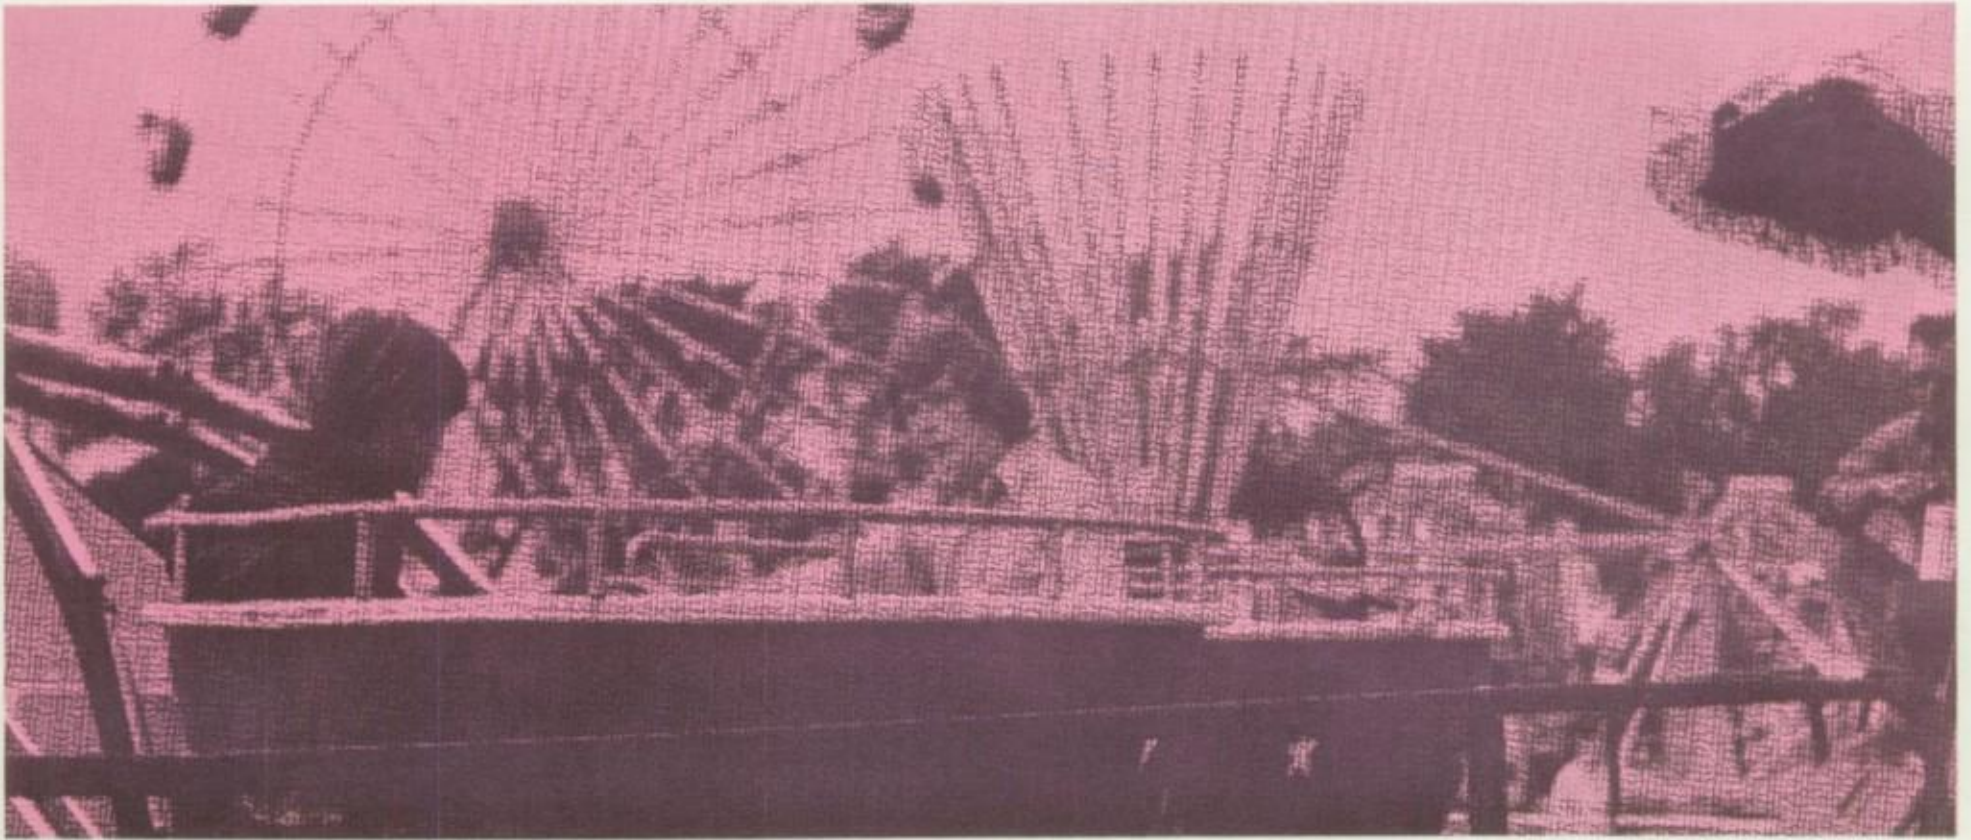

Ruth Ann Routson was chosen from thirty girls as the 1970 Miss Lenawee County Fair Queen on Aug. 17. Earlier that afternoon, five judges picked the ten finalists, two of whom were Onsted graduates, Marquetta Schneider and Nancy Pickford.

As official representative, Ruth walked the fairgrounds, met people, made speeches, and presented ribbons to 4-H winners. As queen, Ruth received the Miss Lenawee Trophy and a dozen red roses. WABJ radio station, GM and the Ford Company all recognized Ruth by sending their congratulations in the form of gifts. Along with these gifts she was given a free modeling course for one week at the Margaret O'Brien Modeling and Finishing School in Toledo.

ORIES LIVE ON. AS THE SEASONS GO

During fair week, students participated in the fun as well as working behind concession booths. Competitive awards were earned by many through FFA, 4-H groups, and other organizations. In the above picture are shown Doug Rue-sink, Bill Hubbard, and Gary Allshouse, all of whom were awarded horsemanship ribbons. Gary placed fifth of seven in overall competition. Doug was awarded first place ribbons in four divisions.

On August 23, 1970, 37 band members headed for Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp near Muskegon, Mich. They were accompanied by two chaperones, Mrs. Jack Stout, Mrs. Kenneth Sancho, and director, Mr. Pratt.

The week consisted of learning marching techniques and formations. After a morning on the drilling field, the bandsmen practiced music for future halftime entertainment outdoors under a large band shell.

After rehearsal there were recreational activities such as swimming, various tournament games and becoming acquainted with members of the two other bands which shared the camp with Onsted.

The participants of band camp had mixed feelings about it, but as a whole, they felt that the week had definitely improved their marching skills. One remark of a bandsmen was, "The best part was the recreation time. We goofed off a lot, but also worked hard on our routines."

On Saturday, the three bands presented a concert for parents and visitors. Each band played a musical selection alone and then assembled for a mass band performance.

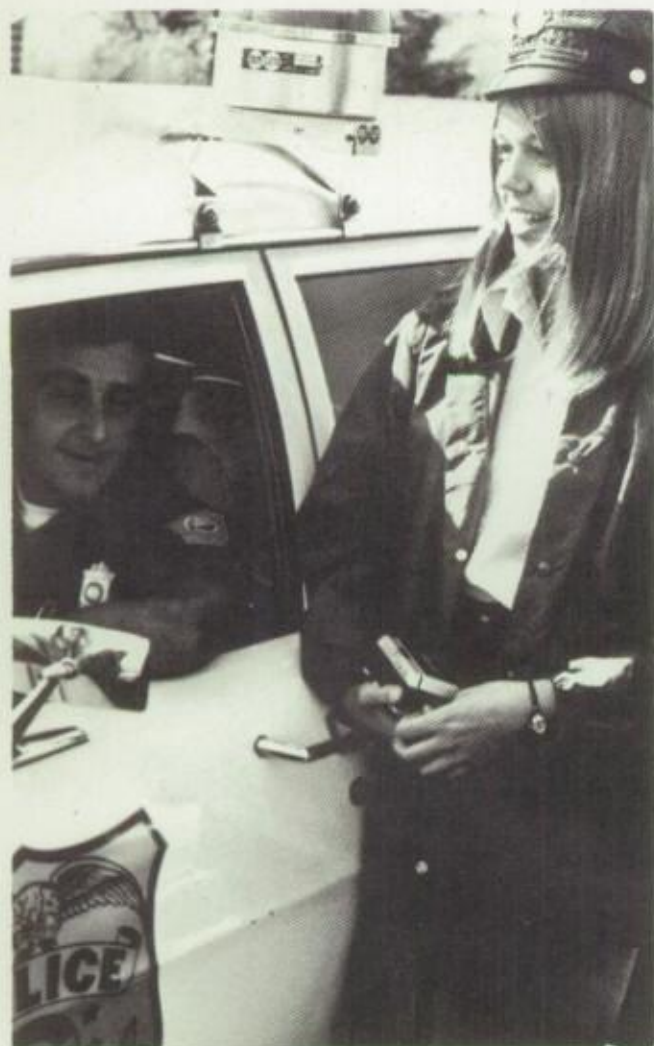

For the most part, the musicians enjoyed beautiful weather but it wouldn't be a typical week of camp without one day of rain. Saturday turned out to be gloomy and a rather disappointing way to end the week.

While some students worked, others chose to spend their summer with family and friends.

Overlanders offered an escape from the typical summer drudge. Through their trip, students learn the value of co-operation. They also have the satisfaction of doing something on their own.

Overlanders covered 4,700 miles through the Southern Rockies. 35 students hiked to the bottom of the Grand Canyon in temperatures reaching 110 degrees and to the top of Mt. Yale, with 15 reaching the summit. A dinner at a Spanish restaurant, and the movie "Paint Your Wagon" also highlighted this trip.

Result of a long hike: BLISTERS!

The second trip totaled 6,000 miles through the Northern Rockies and Southern Canada. They swam in hot spring pools and hiked 18 miles to a ranger station in Glacier National Park.

At Kooney National Park, five of 28 mountain climbers conquered Mt. Wymper. That night a few slept on the mountain, with only two hours of darkness due to the latitude and the elevation.

The last trip to the Northeast took in such sights as Expo, historical sites in Boston, and New York City. The top of the Empire State Building and the incense-filled shops of Greenwich Village offered a final thrill for all.

Fall in line, Dave!

El Toro!

Part of my summer was spent with the Foreign Study League on a six week tour program with 180 students from all parts of the United States.

The program included seven or eight day visits with culture studies in London, England; Paris, France; Steinich, Austria; Rome, Italy; and Madrid, Spain. We also traveled through Germany and Switzerland.

The visits included excursions to such places as Canterbury, Tower of London, London Bridge, Buckingham Palace, The Louvre, The Vatican, the colosseum and the forum.

We sat in on an elaborate opera in Rome, and a classical Shakespearean play in London. In Madrid, we attended an exciting bull fight and a colorful Spanish fiesta.

Traveling was done by plane, bus, and train. Lodging was provided by the major universities of each city. We were allowed plenty of free time for sight-seeing adventures.

This trip broadened my interest in the world and gave me a chance to see things as they really are. The students I met are lasting friends and I write to many of them. I can honestly say this trip was worth it, not only because of the educational value, but also because of the fun I had. In fact, this trip was my dream come true.

On June 10, 90 Keyette and FHA members traveled to Cedar Point. They spent the entire day enjoying the rides and a few decided to take advantage of the swimming facilities--clothes and all.

Several other students also took vacations. Terry Brown and Bill Hubbard camped at Ostego Lake State Park. Steve Barkway and his family toured the Great Smokey Mountains and Dennis Metty accompanied friends to Grayling over the 4th of July. Mike Valentine enjoyed working on various productions at the Croswell Theatre.

Those who took vacations can agree that time away from the busy grind of normal summer days adds a special touch to the season.

We are living in a society that is money oriented. Success is measured by the clothes we wear, the cars we drive, and communities we live in. In a world where teenagers are no longer judged by what their parents have, but for themselves, we find many teens of all social levels making it on their own.

A need for money is the main reason why many teenagers work; but money is not all they gain. Working helps a teen develop a stronger personality, a larger circle of friends, and a greater acceptance of responsibility. They learn about themselves and what they want from life.

AND MONEY AS THE SEASONS GO BY. OUR

about people of different backgrounds, age groups, and social classes. They also learn to deal with their employer by thinking and reasoning on an adult level.

During the summer many teenagers' lives revolve around their job. The teen must decide if this is the right job to revolve his life around. For the teen who has never worked, the choice of attending college or vocational school is a hard decision. He has never known the pressures of a low paying job. The teen who has worked can carefully make the decision after knowing the facts and himself better; taking the direction best for him.

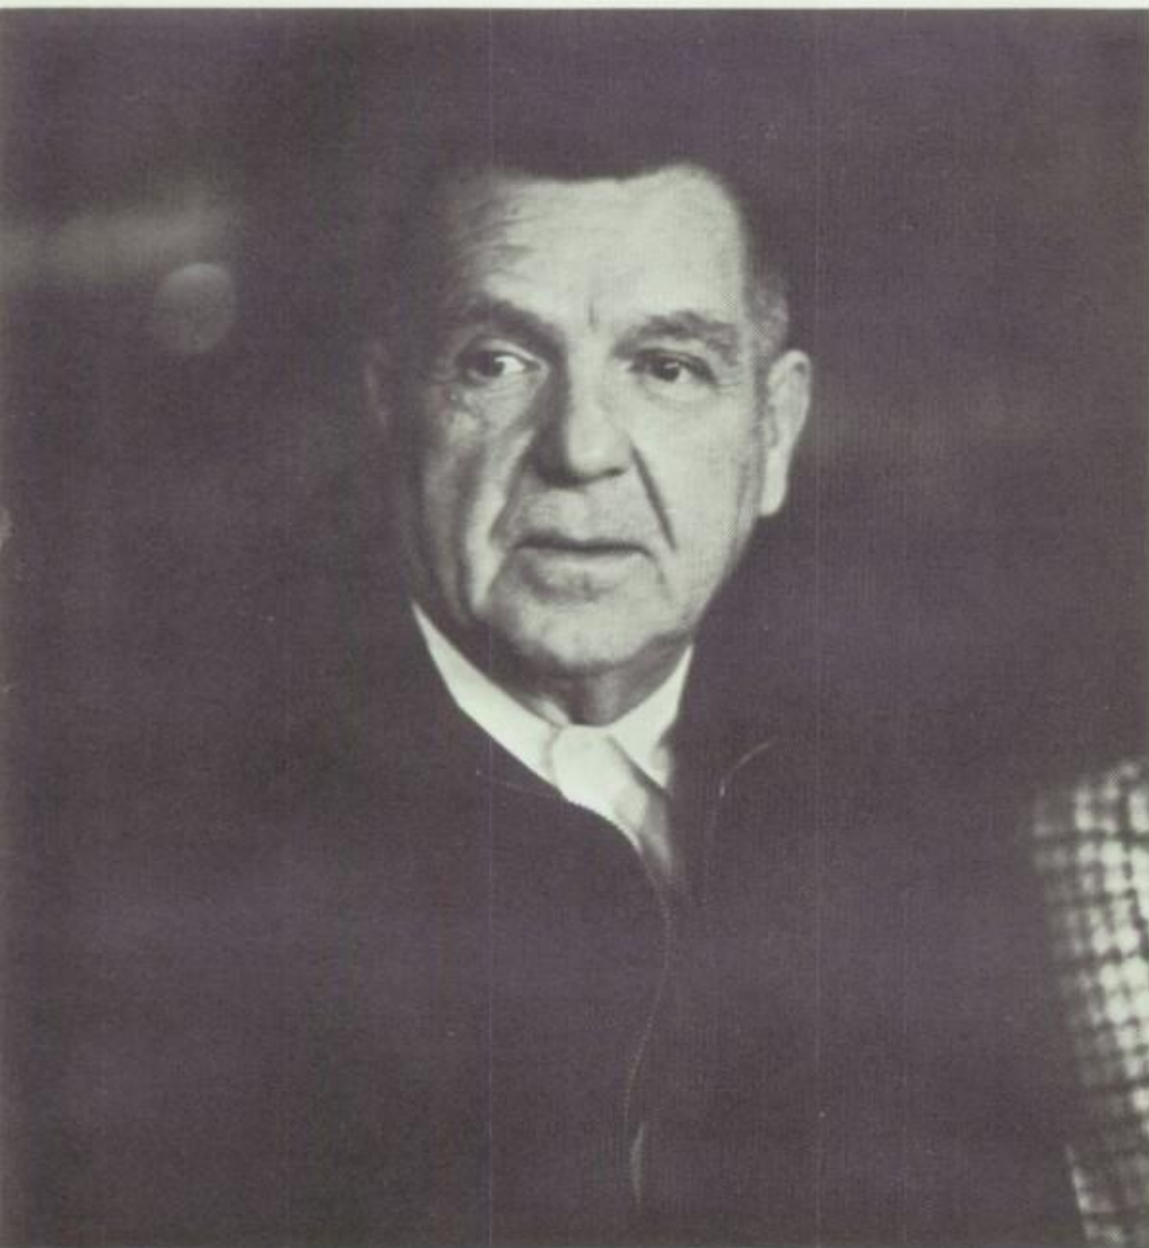

MEMORIES LIVE 0

Many teenagers enjoy their summer jobs, but like every thing a job has its bad side. Weather is a major complaint.

For those who don't work all summer there are days for swimming, picnicking, and summer sports. Along with leisurely pleasures there are various important values of further education, and travelling across the continent and world to meet new people. For many, a summer vacation is an unforgettable experience.

At the end of the summer the student who doesn't work may find himself financially poorer, but richer in experiences and memories.

Onsted High School has undergone a third administration change in the past three years. Elwood Little, who served as superintendent for the past 35 years, announced his retirement, effective July 1st, 1970. Eugene Deuel accepted the superintendent's position.

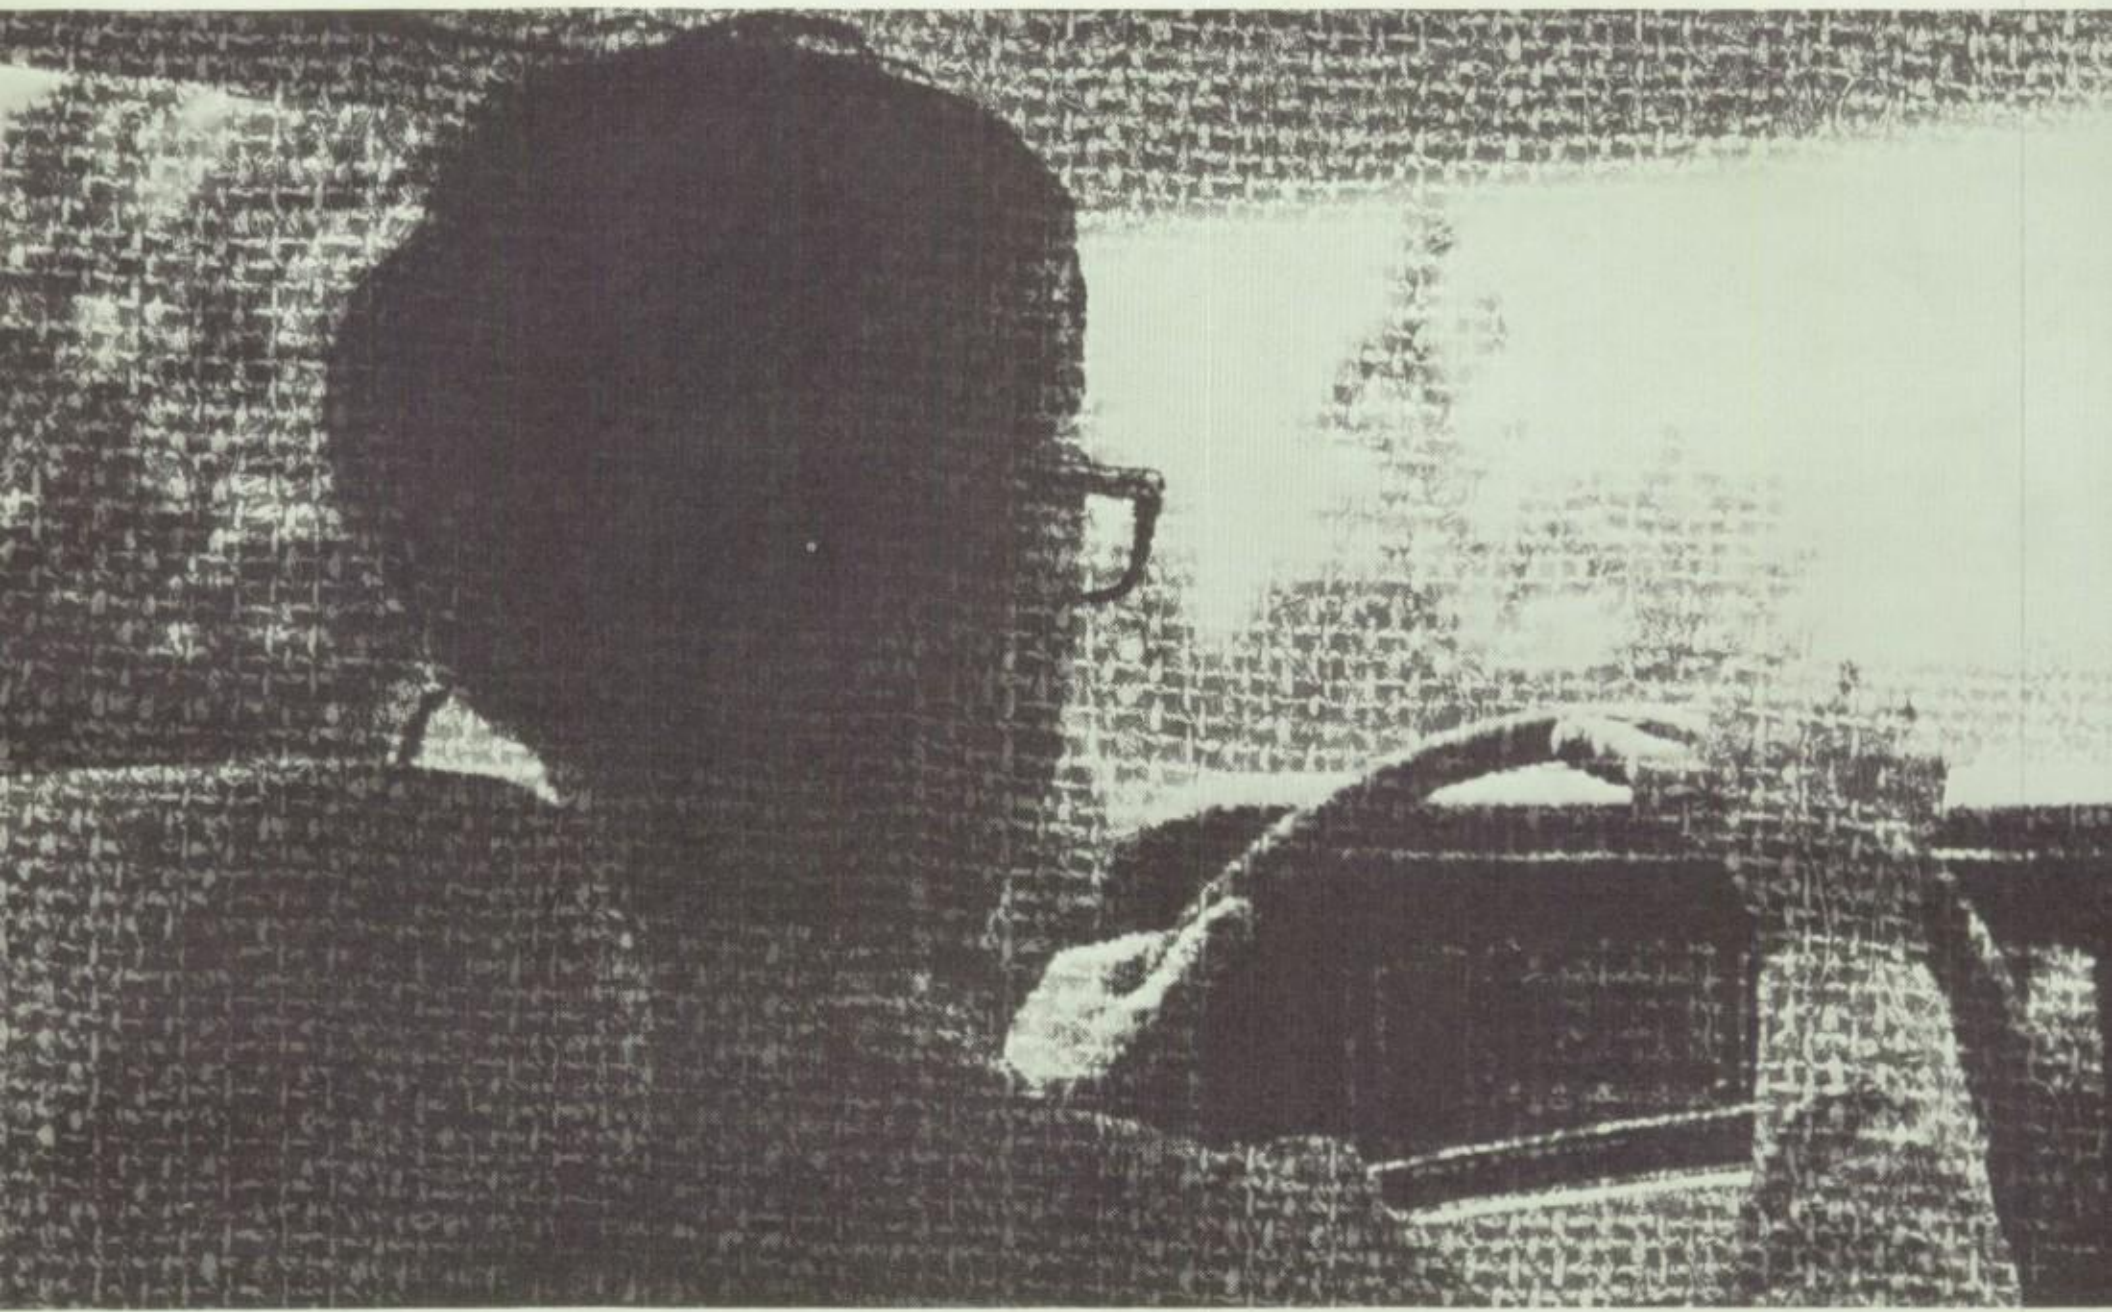

Mr. Deuel replaced Dee Barshney as high school principal for the 1969-1970 school year. He started his teaching career at Onsted in 1956, conducting classes in geography, history, and physical education. Coaching also became part of his activities. Mr. Deuel left Onsted in 1965 to begin teaching at Adrian High School. Charles Redding was elected by the Board of Education as principal for the 1970-'71 school year.

Mr. Redding came to Onsted in 1962 after receiving a B.A. degree from Hillsdale College. He taught history and served as Football coach, then was promoted to athletic director. He is currently working on a M.A. at E.M.U.

Through their dedication and hard work, these three men have influenced and improved the community and school system they have served.

Jeff Yeutter was 1 of 103 students who earned a driving certificate during the weeks of June 11 through July 3.
Mr. Redding and Mr. Rice supervised the driving during the months of March through August.

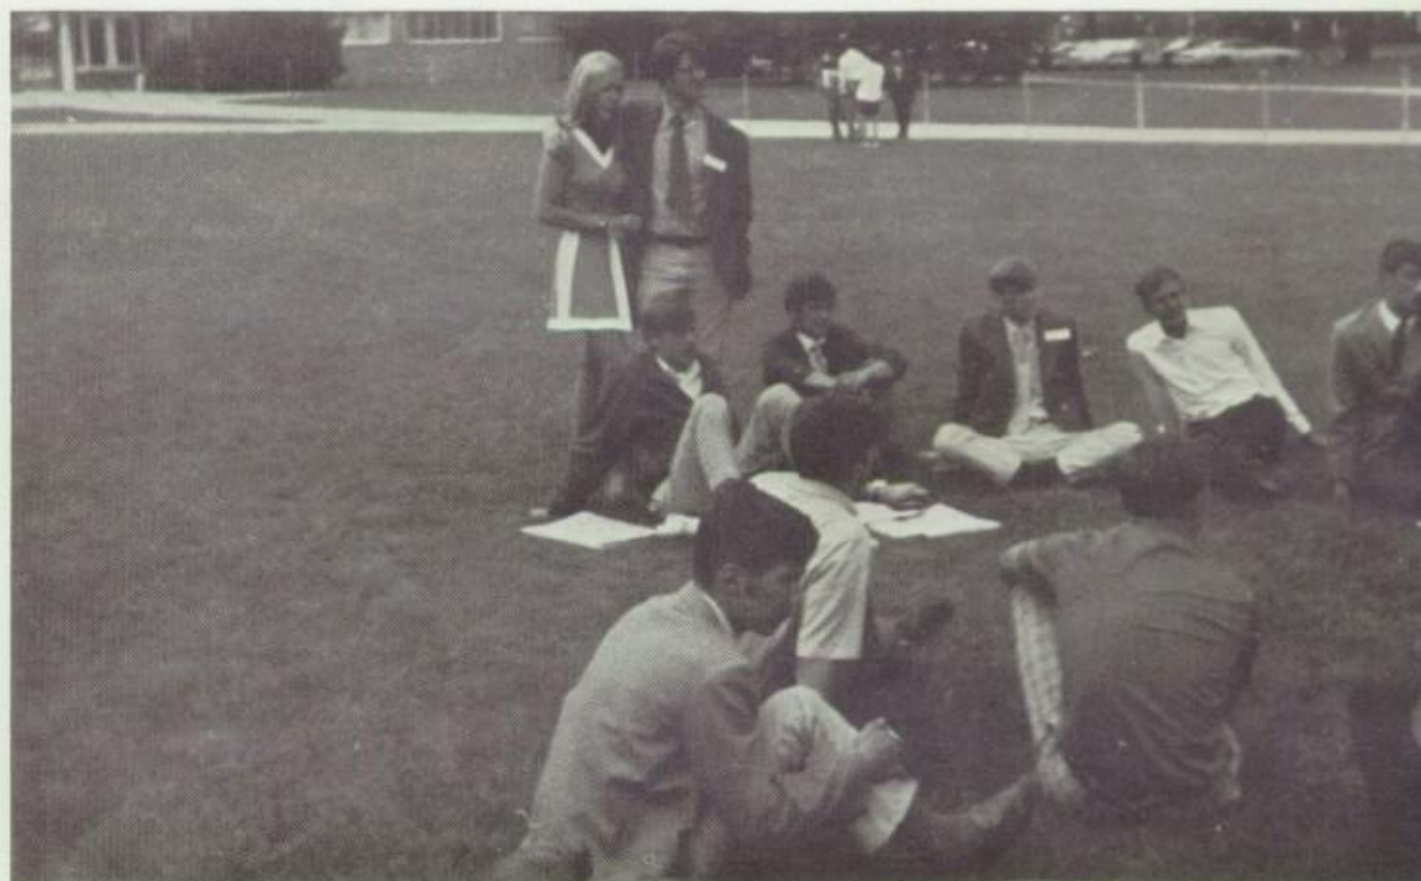

Ruth Green teams up with 20 other Juniors to make the car wash a success.

BOYS... GIRLS STATES THE SEASONS G

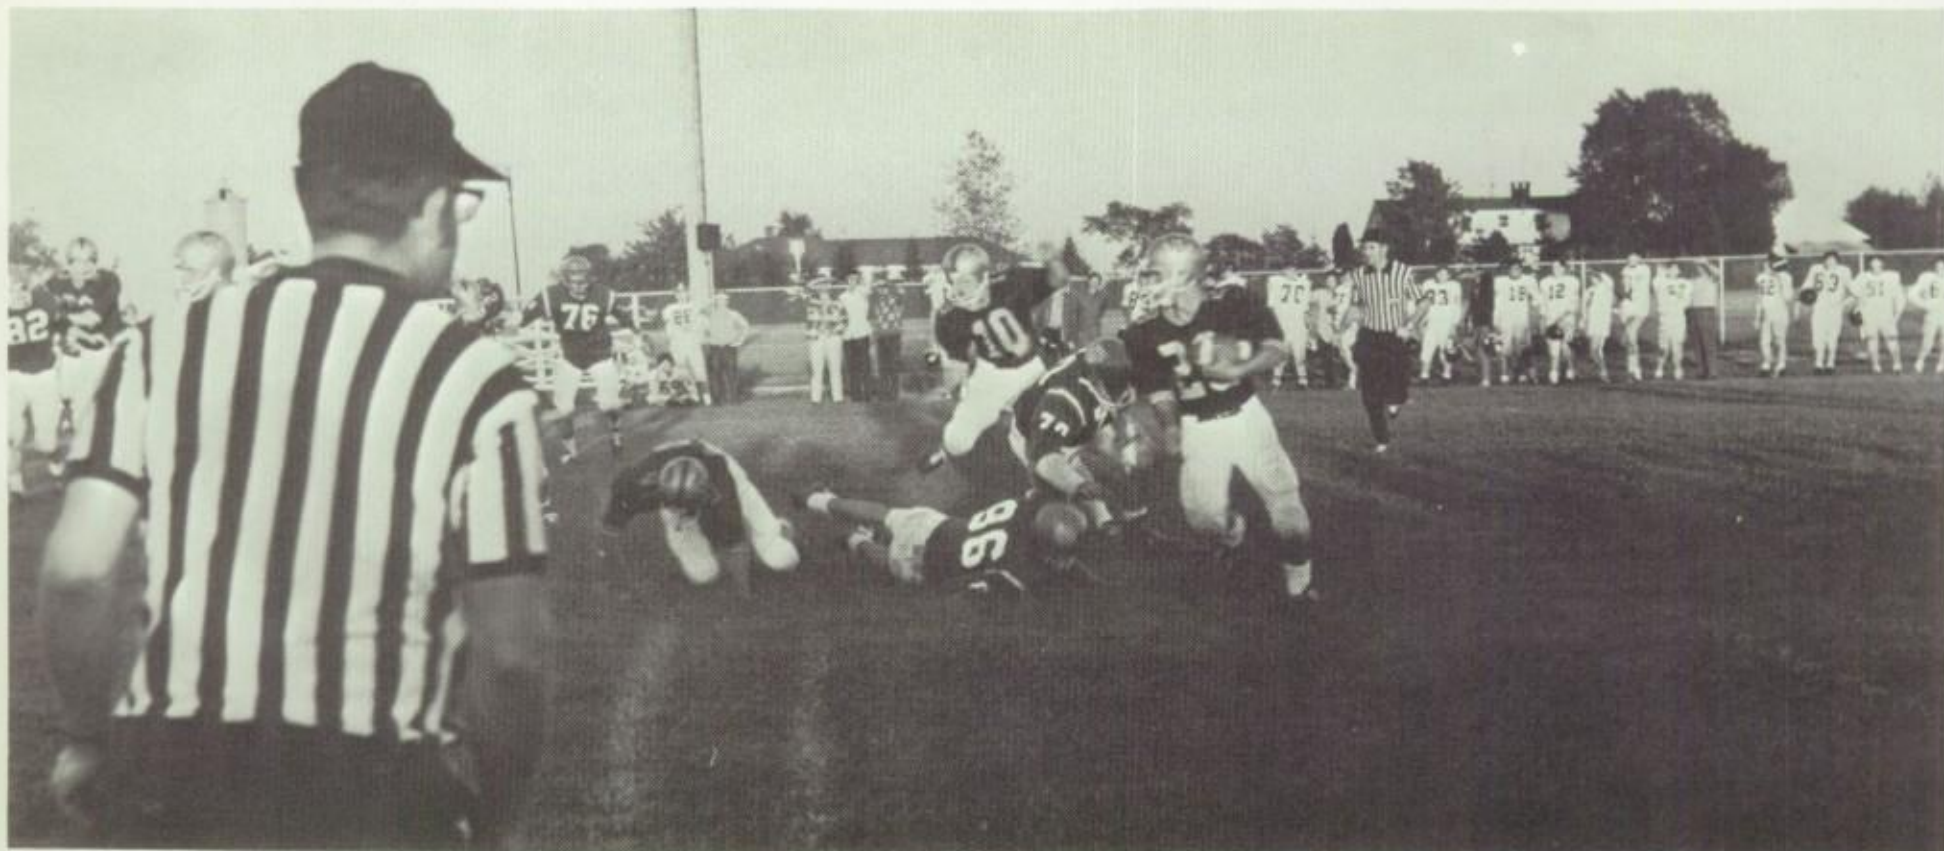

The annual Wolverine Boys' State was held June 17-24 on the Michigan State campus. There were approximately 1,200 boys attending. From Onsted were Bill Hubbard, representing the P.T.S.O., and Doug Lake, sponsored by the American Legion. For these boys it was an interesting experience participating in the governing duties during their eight day stay.

During the week of June 14-21, EMU acted as host for 502 girls. In previous years the Wolverine Girls' State activities took place at the U of M. The Onsted P.T.S.O. chose Linda Petee as their representative. With her went Evelyn Lauer, who was sponsored by the American Legion.

Along with the honor and excitement of making their own government, the girls also became more aware of the principles used to make our state, county, and city governments run. Among the many speakers and guests of the week's activities was Lenore Romney.

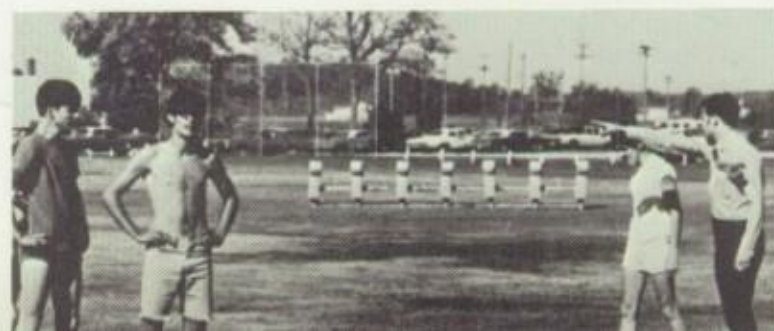

Summer basketball practice for the year of 1970-71 was held throughout the month of June. During this time the cagers practiced the fundamentals of basketball and ran various drills. The main purpose of summer basketball was to teach the underclassmen the techniques they would encounter in the coming basketball season.

The Wildcat football and cross country teams began their summer training during August. The thirty-five members of the football team warmed up with calisthenics then proceeded to run a series of sprints. Because it is illegal to actually play football before August 24, the team played soccer. This helped build up stamina and endurance.

The eight cross country runners participated with the football team in their workouts. With two returnees and six new members, the future looked promising for Coach Cosnek and his team.

"There is no death! The stars go down to rise upon some fairer shore." McCreery

Life is merely an existence, unfulfilled and empty, until a person fills this hollow space of time with a cherished ideal guided by faith in themselves and God, and love for their fellow man. Peggy Kennedy's ideal of graduating enabled her to overcome the difficulties that continually beset her. She was respected and admired by many for her courage and determination.

Peggy entered the eighth grade at Onsted High School when she was thirteen years old. She enjoyed helping others and worked with her classmates in Keyettes, Annual, and the Library Club. She was an excellent student and in the many months that she was home bound she always kept up with her studies.

Peggy was known by her classmates as a person you couldn't dislike because she disliked no one. In a world of imperfect people she saw beyond the faults of others

On September 8, 1970, the buses began their routes, bringing the students back for another year of studying, organizations, and activities.

Over 700 students are now attending Onsted High and upon filing into the gym, many of them were forced to stand because of the crowded conditions on the bleachers.

After receiving the annual lecture, it was announced that no book fees would be charged, and paper and pencils would be passed out every six weeks. This came about because of a law suit brought up earlier in the summer when it was discovered that it was unconstitutional to charge for these things.

Everyone then dispersed into classrooms where each student was given a card for h parents to fill out. With this accomplished, everyone was dismissed promptly at 11:00 A.M., thus ending the first day of school.

LIVE ON. CROWDED CONDITIONS SEASONS

Our high school is facing a serious problem. There are not adequate facilities or enough room to fill the students' educational needs.

The original high school was built in 1926. It was built to serve a capacity of 125 students. It presently serves 378 students. The conditions of many rooms are beyond repair. The hardwood floors are warped in places and rise six inches from normal level. Snow is often found on the inside window sills. The acoustics are beyond belief. The squeaking caused by people walking on the above floors interferes with the education of the students below.

One example of the crowded conditions is the art room. There are 270 students who operate in this room each day. Students working on various projects find themselves cramped for space. Clay from pottery and sculptures often splatters on paintings and paint left on the tables is picked up by the clay.

Under these conditions how can teachers be expected to teach students what is needed? How can students be expected to put forth their best effort?

Other students have classes in typing rooms. They share tables with typewriters and must look around typewriter cords to do blackboard assignments.

Health class meets in an athletic storage room which is hardly big enough for the storage of equipment. This surely creates an effective teaching and learning atmosphere.

When the student body is called to the gym for assemblies they look on it as a burden. When the bleachers were built they were to hold 700 students. With the entire student body in the bleachers there are 721 students.

The average increase of students over the last five years has been 25 students per year. At that rate the population in five years will have reached 846. In five additional years it will have reached nearly 1,000 students.

There is definitely a problem. We have reached our capacity. The condition of the old high school is by no means an asset to education. Within the next few years an answer will have to be found. Whether it be building, additions, new school, or consolidation, something will have to be decided if the educational program is to be continued. The lack of classrooms and inadequate facilities has to be made right. Educated people is the basis for democracy. If education can't be provided at the needed rate, where will democracy be tomorrow?

Even though the Onsted Wildcats suffered a defeat, their spirits were brightened when Toni Pickford was crowned 1970 Homecoming Queen by last year's queen, Nancy Pickford.

The introductions and crowning took place during half-time. The court and escorts were as follows: Toni Pickford and Terry Brown, Cheryl Larson and John Doyle, Pat Beebe and Bill Morehouse, Noel Lundahl and Ken Faulk, Joni Pickford and Rick Arnold, Jonell Derbyshire and Steve Harris.

The students filled Homecoming week with such activities as decorating bulletin boards, making signs, preparing skits, and campaigning for the queen candidates. The cheerleaders held their annual bonfire the night before the game. The most fun for all was the planning and making of floats. After the judging, a parade was held in town for the showing of the floats. Once again the class of '71 placed first in the competition.

The Keyette club, under the guidance of Miss Glasier, has undertaken many new projects with various prospectives in mind.

In the fall the group held a candy sale and a bake sale. A slave auction added some fun and gave the boys a chance to retaliate. A Thanksgiving basket, complete with a turkey, was given to a family. For Christmas, the members wrapped discarded, but usable toys and clothing hoping these gifts would brighten some child's Christmas.

They have attempted to prove to the community that the club can promote service and understanding.

The F.F.A. has had a busy year. Activities include a bank auction, club initiations, and growing crops on rented land.

Contests are also a big part of the F.F.A. with such winners as Doug Allshouse and Greg Smith in the plowing contest, Wesley McRobert, Ray Jacobs, and Vicki Kozar in the pest hunt, Don Hunt for the soybean pod contest, Kris Pelham in the ear corn contest and Kevin Roberts winning the corn contest honors. Mike Wooden received the Regional Farmer Degree.

An "added attraction" to the organization is that this was the first year girls were allowed to become F.F.A members at Onsted.

The F.F.A. has proved to be one of the most active and hardest working organizations in the school.

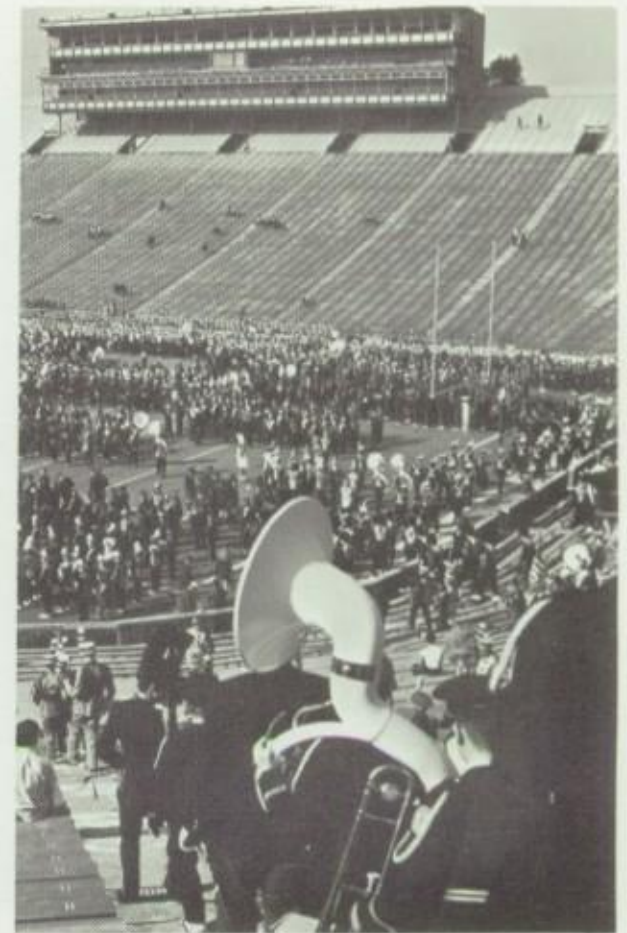

Pam Miller was chosen as F.F.A. Sweetheart for the 1970-71 year. Mike Wooden was her escort.

On Sept. 19, the Onsted High School Marching Band began its season by taking part in Band Day at the University of Michigan. They were joined by 12,000 band members from throughout the state. During half-time of the U. of M.-Arizona State game, the bands presented eight pieces of music to the capacity crowd.

The band then continued its season by providing half-time entertainment for spectators at the home football games. In addition, they composed a pep band which played at all the pep assemblies.

The band also participated in the annual Tecumseh Festival along with nine other bands in the county.

On November 25, the Jr. and Sr. High Choirs, and the Jr. High Band, presented a Thanksgiving assembly for the elementary and high school students. This was the first concert of the newly organized chorus.

The Jr. High Band had 21 entries in the Jr. High Solo and Ensemble Contest this year. The band fared well receiving ten I ratings.

The bands and choirs should be commended for their long, hard hours of rehearsing and their many fine performances.

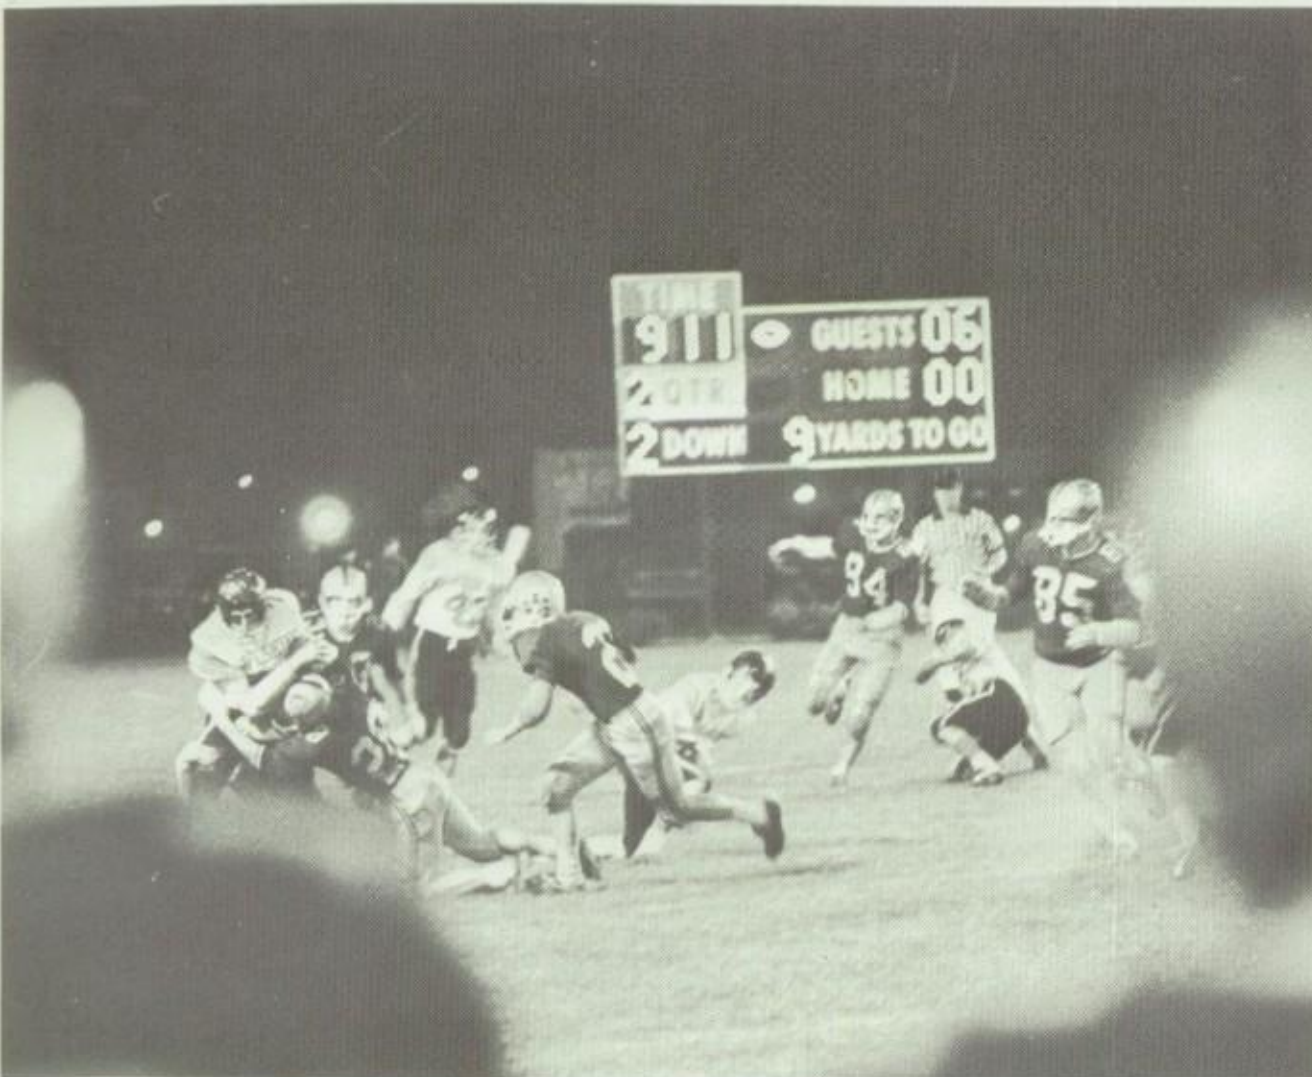

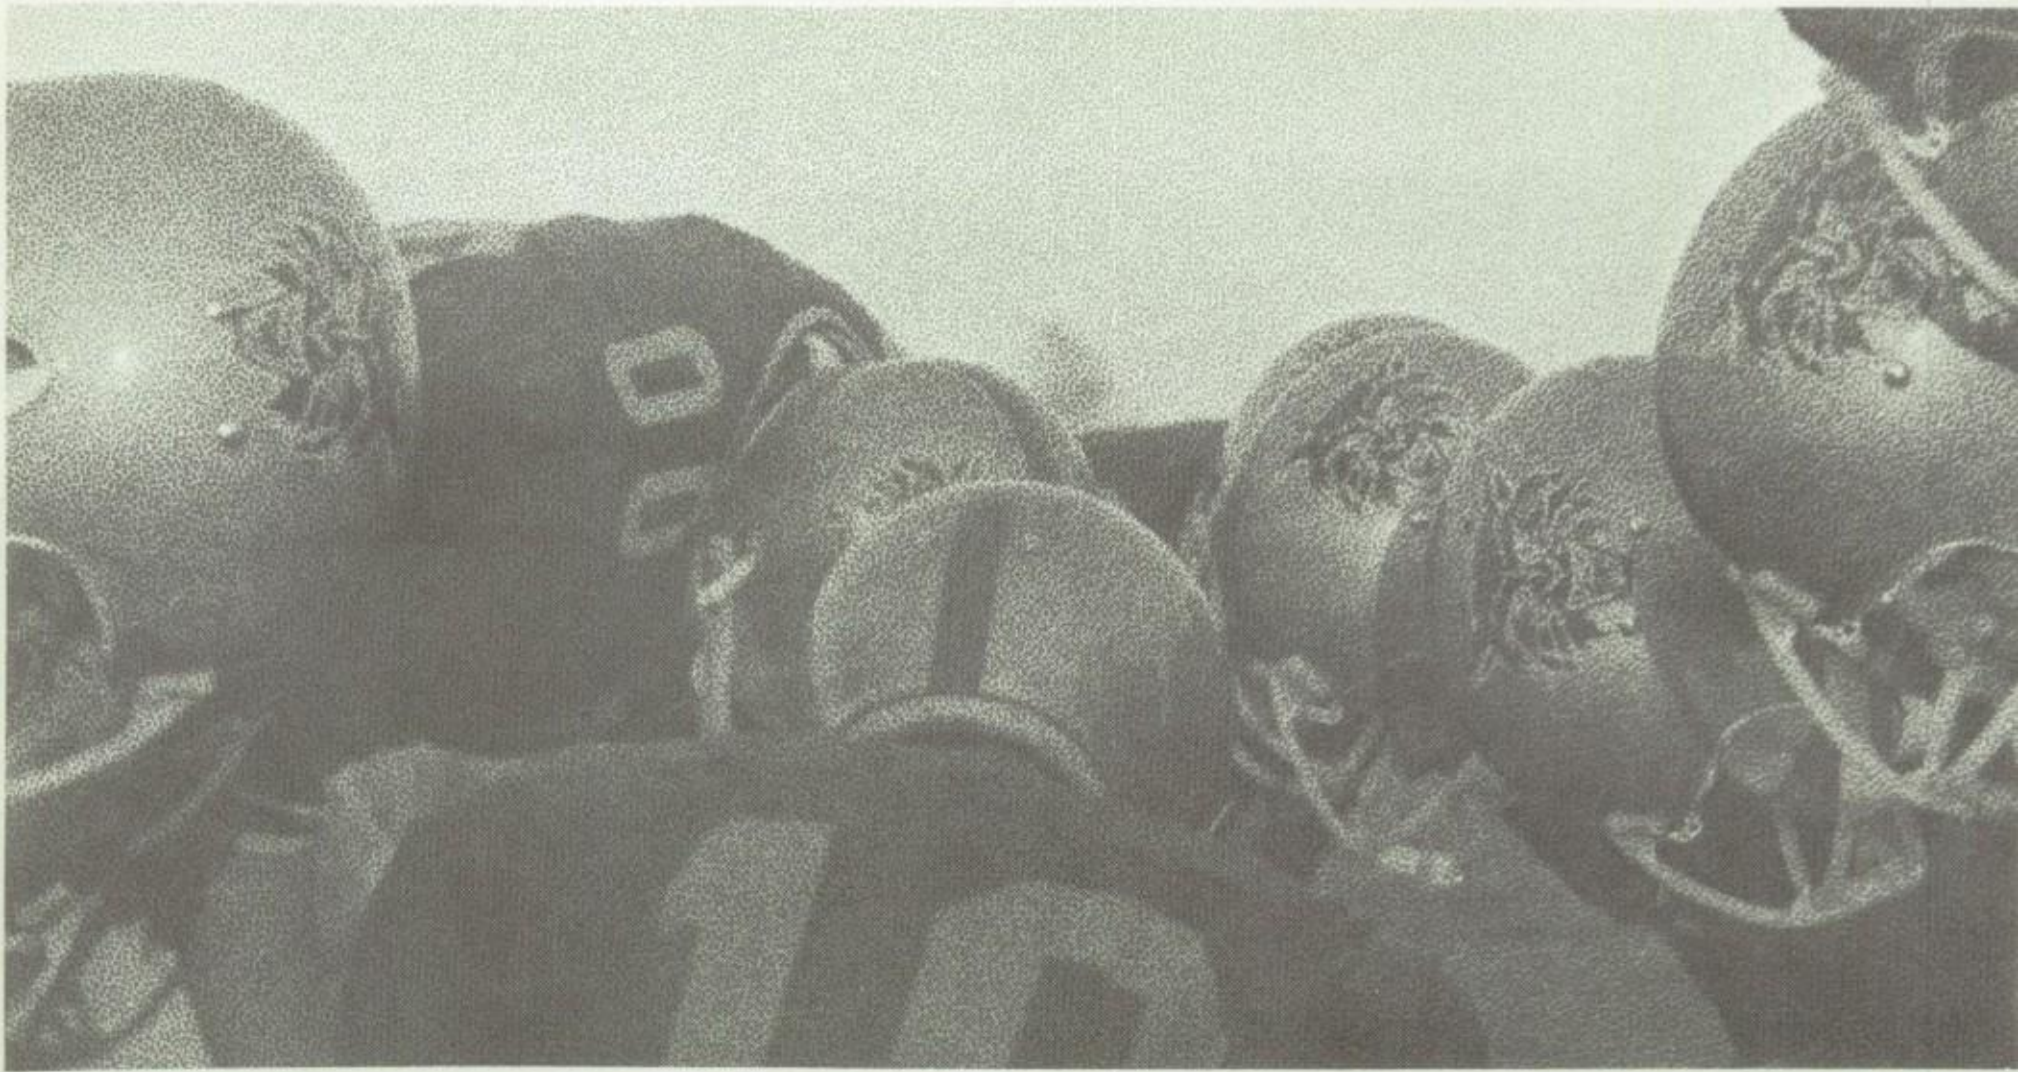

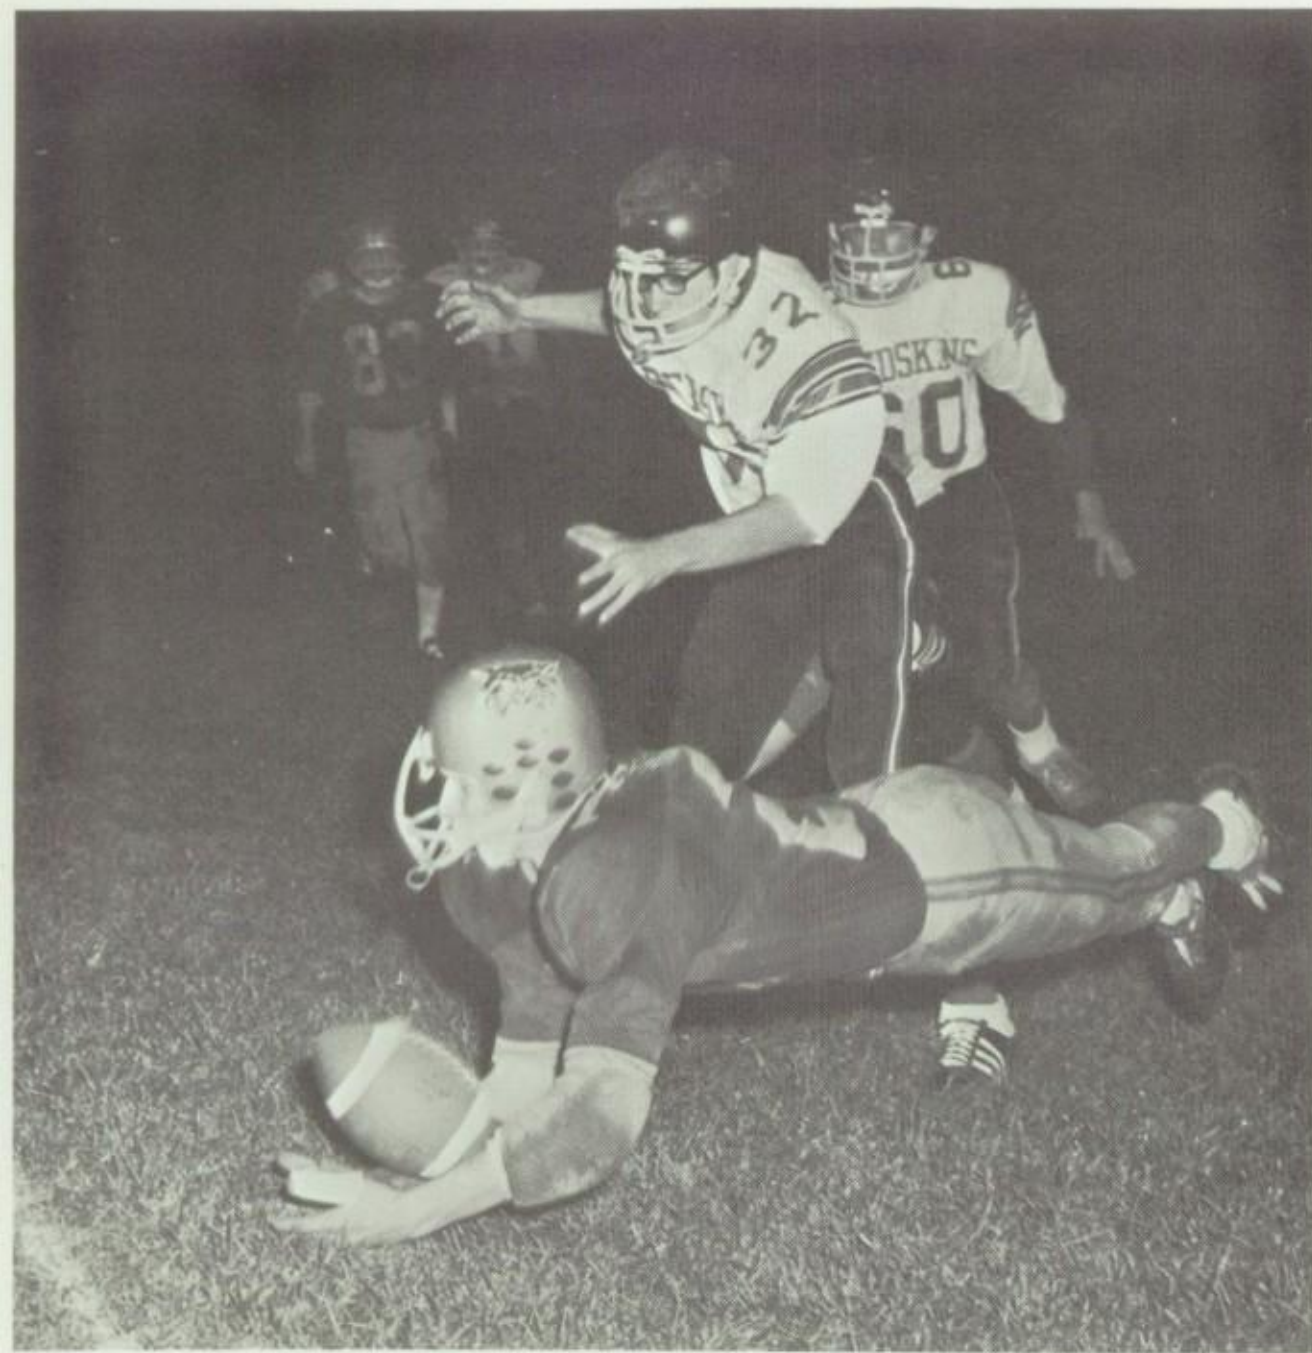

The 1970 Wildcats got off the wrong foot this year Columbia Central defeated them 38-0. The rest of the football season seemed to follow this pattern, as shown by the final record. Mr. Sickie summed up the season with the following comment "In terms of the won-lost record, the football season would have been considered failure. However, many good things resulted from this season, as a great number of underclassmen played and gained valuable experience. Next year we will have nineteen returning lettermen, who I'm sure will reverse this year's record."

Even though the team did not have a good season, a few boys managed to brighten the season with outstanding performances.

The Junior High posted a fine 4-2 won-lost record. The junior cats had a fine turnout of sixty-seven competitors. The season was summed up with this statement by Coach Cutler, "Hard work and determination pay great rewards and the finest reward a team can give a coach is a winning season."

Onsted's cross-country team, led by Ken Lynn and Dennis Metty, posted a won-lost record of 6-4, the best record Onsted has ever held. Ken Lynn, a junior and transfer, set a school record of 12:59 on Nov. 11, 1970. Ken also placed second in the league and third in regional and is the only Onsted runner to go to the State meet where he placed 16th.

Dennis Metty, captain of the team, placed third in the league and grabbed many valuable points as he helped lead the team to victory.

The team consisted of three seniors, two juniors, two sophomores and two freshmen.

BY SERVICE CLUBS FOR A BETTER SCHOOL MEM

Members of the Onsted Future Teachers of America are students interested in a career in education. Under the guidance of Mrs. Winch, they explore teaching programs by attending FTA workshops at Michigan colleges and universities. This year the club members attended a field day at Jackson Community College.

The main project of Future Teachers is to raise enough money each year to award one of its senior members a college scholarship. To qualify for this award, the member should be a good student and citizen, show a good attendance record, and be an active member of the club.

FTA has a small membership, but the club starts each year out with a membership drive to encourage new members to join. It is a worthwhile organization that just needs a little more support.

The Library Club is a group of students who get together socially in order to get acquainted with their fellow workers.

A fall party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Butler. In December the club members went caroling and distributed gifts to the Lenawee Medical Center. A trip to the State Library in Lansing is planned for April. Such trips add to their knowledge of how libraries are operated in other places.

Basketball was a continuance from football. There were many heartaches and sorrow from losing several games by less than 5 points. There were a couple of good moments during the season when the Cagers set a school record for most points, by defeating the Clinton Redskins, 103-97. Another high point was tying Grass Lake, the LCAA leaders, and sending the game into overtime before the Wildcats were finally defeated 77-75. Coach VanSickle gave a summary of the Basketball season as follows, "Although the overall record was not good, the season offered some warm memories for those involved. The underclassmen obtained much experience and are looking forward to next year."

Although the record was not the best, the real story lies in the players. They were a group who never did get off on the right foot in previous years, but they also were a group who never did quit or let up no matter how much better their opponents were. This showed in the many games that they did lose by 5 or less points to teams who by statistics, were 3 times as good. If the breaks would have fallen our way the team would have had a good season. There were no real outstanding players, just a team who wanted to play.

The gym held a capacity crowd this year as the Jr. and Sr. High Bands and Choirs performed their annual Christmas concert. Many hours of practice paid off as all the groups did an excellent job.

Mr. Cutler narrated the concert and Jim Jannuzzi, alias Santa Claus, put in a surprize appearance.

For the first time in several years, the Jr. High Band attended District Band Contest. They did well, receiving a II rating.

The Sr. High Choir enjoyed a trip to see H.M.S. Pinafore, an operetta put on by Adrian College.

Evelyn and JoAnn, recipients of home economics awards

The Future Homemakers of America, under the guidance of Mrs. Cunningham, have had a very busy and productive year. They contributed one-half the cost of uniforms for the 7th grade cheerleaders. For the community they gave Thanksgiving and Christmas boxes to families. They also visited the pediatric wards at Bixby Hospital, contributing toys to the children. This winter, the club sponsored a Tupperware party for the members and their mothers.

Two senior girls received Home Economic awards. Evelyn Lauer received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award and JoAnn Brady received the Crisco Award, given to the best senior Home Economics student.

The Onsted Wrestlers had a good year, though there were many disappointments and the tragic death of a teammate. The team was hit by empitiago that caused cancellation of several matches. Everyone said we were down and out, but we proved them wrong. Time and time again Onsted came out on top. Soon everyone was saying maybe Onsted's not so crippled after all. We didn't say anything at all but just kept working for our goal as league champs. Many times deep disappointment overwhelmed us after the loss of a match but we managed to bounce back and come out ahead. Then, at the league meet, Onsted surprised everyone but themselves by taking third place.

Curtis Parsons and Jack Howard were the Co-Captains this year and the only seniors on the squad. They are both outstanding wrestlers as testified by their both taking first place in the league meet and winning many other tournaments also.

In the Regional meet Curtiss was very disappointed when he broke his collar bone and had to drop from competition. Jack barely missed first place, being given a second on a very close referee's decision in a tie match.

Fay Burlew, Jr. was a member of the Onsted Wrestling team. His attitude and spirit has been felt by his team mates, especially before a meet, with his sincere good luck, a hand shake and a quiet go get 'em guys.

Although Fay never competed in a Varsity match and may never have been a state champion, this young man was as much a part of this team as any Varsity wrestler.

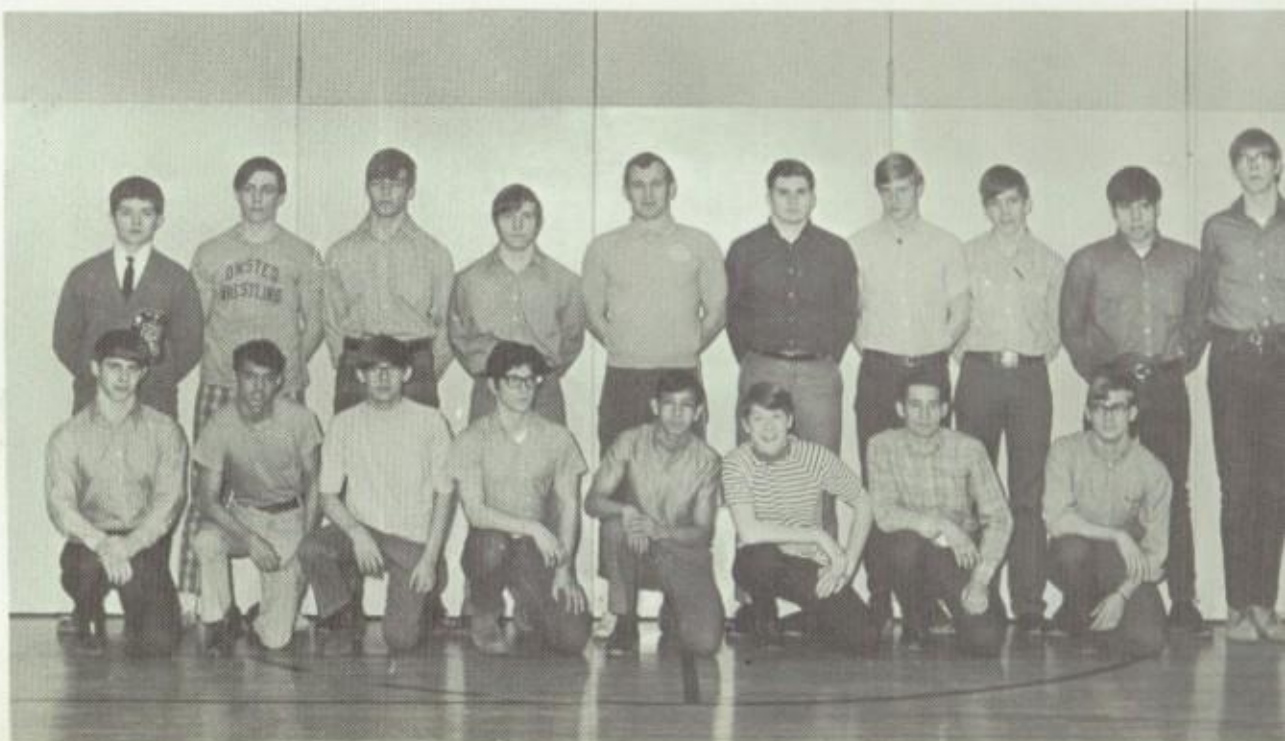

IN MEMORY OF FAY BURLEW, JR.

We gather here today my friends
To say our last good bye
To a friend and a fellow wrestler
But why, Oh Lord, oh why?

Fay had just reached the 7th grade
His life had only started
Yet God had other plans for him
That's why he has departed.

Fay will be missed by all of us
But as we sit and pray
Remember he is in heaven
And with our Lord today.

IES LIVE ON. THE OLD MAN'S MONEY 10

Every play has its romantic scenes.

Aged, helpless--and rich!

Under the direction of Mr. Leo Benish of Adrian College, the senior class presented a suspense-filled play entitled "The Old Man's Money." The cast acted out the story of a rich old uncle who intends to leave none of his fortune to his greedy nephew, the only surviving relative. Instead the uncle hires a lawyer to track down the daughter of his dead sister. After making her acquaintance, he feels secure in leaving his fortune to her. Later he finds out that his real granddaughter died fourteen years earlier. The play then moves on until the mystery of the imposter posing as his granddaughter is solved and naturally, his scheming nephew is behind it all.

Included in the cast were:
Ruth Fielder, Ruth Busuttill,
Gary Allshouse, Marsha Peters,
Cindy McCarty, Jon Kiers,

Richard McRoberts, Cheryl Larson, Terry Filipek, and Dennis Metty.

MEMBER MEMBERS...SNOW...SLOPES...SKIING SEASON.

Pretty maids all in a row.

The members of the newly formed ski club have enjoyed our unusually hard winter. In addition to skiing at Irish Hills Sports Park, the club has taken five additional trips to ski resorts. These trips have enabled small groups of skiers to get in more practice time and to experience the more advanced slopes.

Approximately 12 members spent week-ends at Mt. Mansfield, Caberfae and Boyne Highlands. They rented a motor home in which they lived for the week-end. Their days and evenings were spent on the slopes getting plenty of fresh air and meeting other skiers.

As a result of the formation of the ski club, many students have learned to ski. Those who had already conquered the basics spent their time practicing and polishing their techniques.

The varsity cheerleaders began the first of their activities in the summer by spending four days at the Aldon Woods cheerleading camp near Hartland, Michigan.

With the proceeds from program ads, bake sales, and a rummage sale, the cheerleaders purchased new varsity football uniforms.

The squad was made up of five seniors and two juniors who kept the spirit lively throughout the year.

SPRING

THE SEASON MAGIC OF MUSIC IS GO BY. '8

The highlight of the spring activities for the band was District Band Contest, held at Napoleon on March 20. After long, hard hours of practice, the band received straight I's; the highest rating given. State Contest was held in Kalamazoo on May 1. Not doing quite as well, the band received a II rating.

On April 26, parents and bandsmen assembled for the annual Band Awards Banquet. It was held in the gym this year and a capacity crowd attended. After a potluck dinner, awards were presented to band members. The John Philip Sousa award was given to David Jaqua. This award is presented each year to the outstanding Senior band member. It is the highest award given by the band.

Although the Varsity Baseball Team had a slow start, they finished above their expectations. From continued improvement throughout the season, the team was at its peak at the start of the State Tournaments. The Wildcats won their first two games of the Tournament by beating Morenci and East Jackson, four to one and two to one, respectively. The Aggies of Sand Creek finally ended the season for the Wildcats in a close game, in which the score was five to four.

On June 6, 1971, diplomas were presented to the largest class ever to graduate from Onsted High School. Graduation activities began on May 12 when the Junior-Senior Class Night was held in the high school gymnasium. The top ten presented the class history, class prophecy, class will, and class giftatory. Along with this, many awards, scholarships, grants, and honors were announced.

The Seniors departed on May 24 for Washington D. C. and New York City. In Washington the students toured famous historical sites such as the White House, Washington Monument, Arlington Cemetery, The Wax Museum, and many others. After touring Washington, they departed for

New York City which became the high point of their tour. They visited the United Nations, climbed the Statue of Liberty, walked down the famous Broadway and many climbed the Empire State Building. They attended Radio City Music Hall and watched a Broadway play. The class goal of a Senior trip proved to be worth the hard work that was put into the class projects.

On May 30 at 7:30 P.M. Baccalaureate was held in the gymnasium. The choir presented one of their best performances by singing "We've Only Just Begun". The message was presented by Rev. Harold Krieg of the Springville Methodist Church. He spoke on our class motto,

"Afoot and Lighthearted We Take to the Open Road."

June 6 soon arrived and Commencement exercises were held at 3:00 P.M. outside on the football field. The speaker was Dr. Lawrence Reed, superintendent of schools at Jackson, he spoke on the "Formula For Success". The band played a selection from "The King and I" and for many seniors it was their last performance. Cheryl Larson presented the Valedictory and Penny Westgate the Salutatory, both speeches contained the thoughts of many fellow classmates. Mr. Eugene De presented the diplomas. As each Senior past through the line to receive his diploma, thoughts of life at Onsted were reminiscenced through their minds.

LEO CUNHA

Leo came to the United States on February 21 of this year. He came from Belo Horizonte, Brazil, a city of about two million people. While attending school at Onsted he resided at the Calhoun residence.

He enjoys all sports and likes to read. In Brazil he learned to speak French, English, Spanish, and Portuguese.

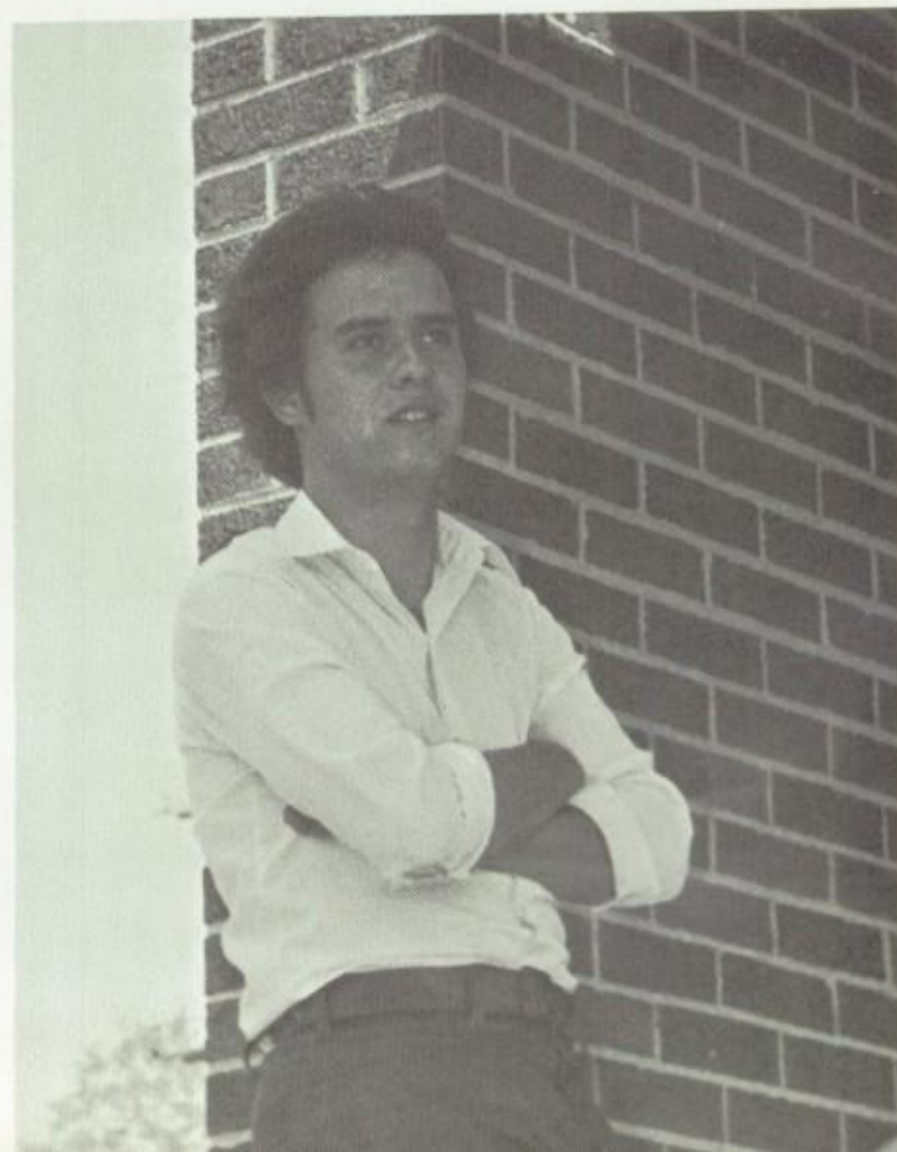

Leo extended his travels by participating with the Overlanders on the Kentucky Derby and Florida trips. He just recently returned from the senior class trip to Washington D.C. and New York City.

RODRIGO GOMES

Rodrigo came to the United States on February 1 from Rio de Janeiro. While here, he lived with the Schmieding family. He enjoys playing the guitar, drum, organ, sweet flute, and harmonica and also enjoys riding motorcycles.

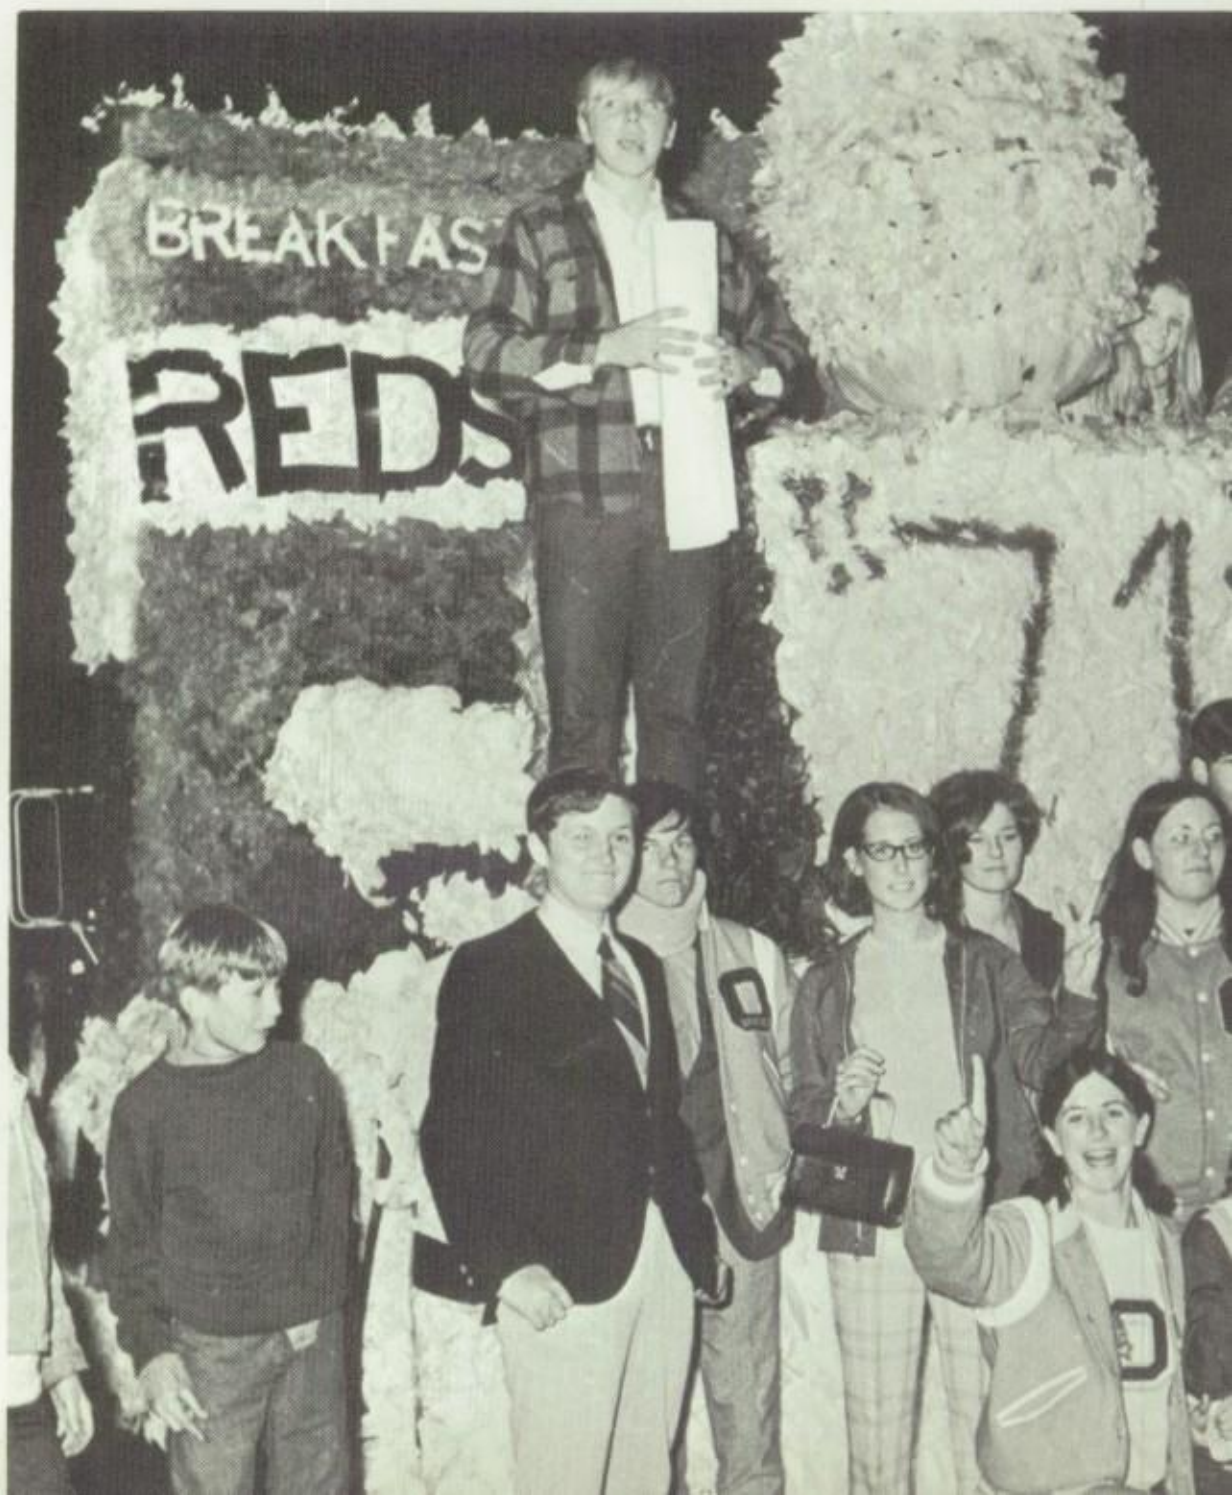

Like Leo, Rodrigo took advantage of the opportunity to travel through the Overlanders program. He enjoyed the Kentucky Derby and Florida trips. At the end of the school year he went along with the other class members on the senior trip.

OUR MEMORIES TOP TEN AS THE SEASONS GO

CHERYL LARSON

I have always planned on attending a college and next year my dream will come true. I have been accepted at Michigan State University and will begin my college career there next fall.

As of now I have no definite major in mind. I am planning to explore various areas such as journalism, fashion retailing, and advertising. I hope to finish college and engage in a professional career of some kind. If, however, my college education should end before I expect it to, I feel that the knowledge I have acquired will be of value to me.

My high school years have been a wonderful experience and I will never forget them. I have especially enjoyed English and composition courses, chemistry, and biology.

In my free time, I enjoy sewing, reading, snow and water skiing, and swimming.

This fall I am planning to enter Central Michigan University. I will attend school for four years in order to obtain a Bachelor of Arts degree. I enjoy working with children and hope to obtain a teaching certificate for either handicapped or emotionally disturbed children. To better myself for this field, I plan to earn a minor in psychology.

Throughout high school I have favored history courses, but also have interests in American Literature, chemistry, and sociology. Through the Michigan Department of Education, I received the recognition of being an honorary scholarship recipient.

I have been active in 4-H, and like swimming, reading, and sewing. I enjoy traveling and have been on several Overlander trips. Either during my college years or after graduation, I would like to travel to different parts of the world.

PENNY WESTGATE

CHRISTINE GARDNER

Because of plans to be married in September, I would like to continue working my first year out of school. With an interest in Selling & Retailing, I may choose to attend Jackson Community or Sienna Heights in the future.

I have been accepted at Northern Michigan University, where I plan to major in education and eventually teach art and drama. I have enjoyed art, English, and theatre arts courses in high school. Also, I enjoy working at the Croswell Theatre in my spare time.

MICHAEL VALENTINE

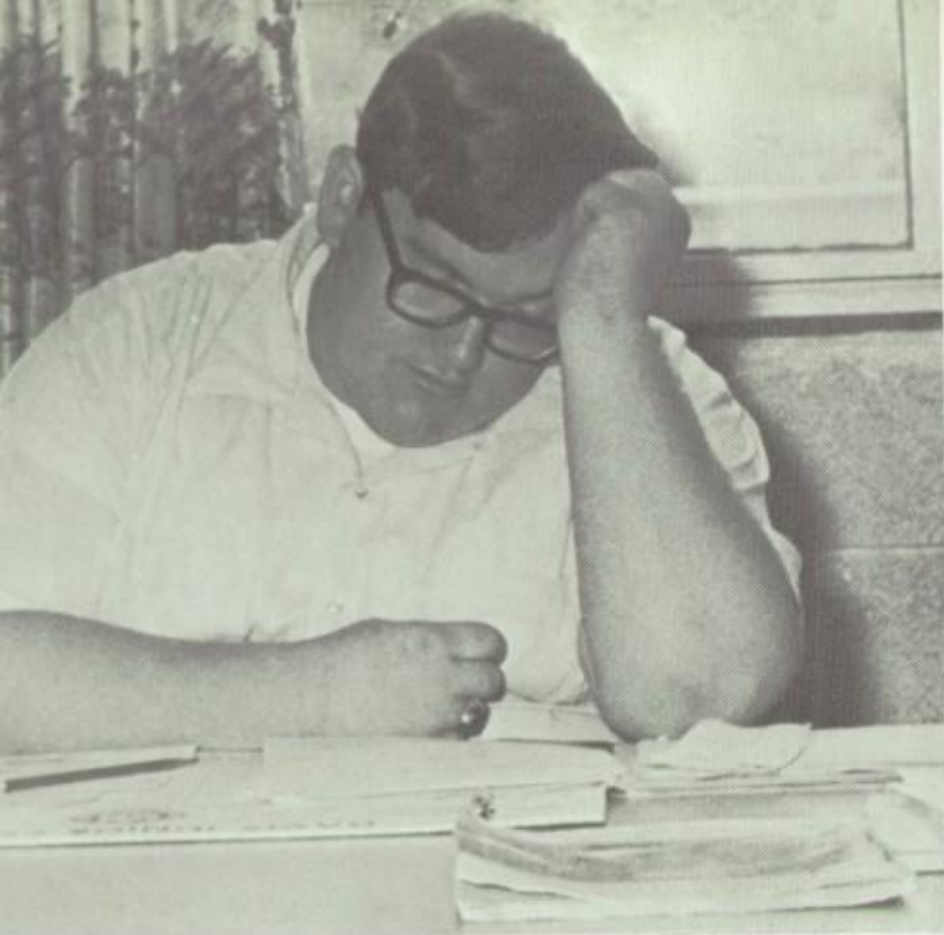

WILLIAM HUBBARD

I plan to attend Michigan State University where I will major in Political Science, Pre-Law. With this major I plan to become a lawyer, with hopes of becoming active in government. I have enjoyed history and math classes in high school and participating in all sports.

I have been accepted by the University of Michigan School of Nursing for the 1971 fall term. At that time I will begin a four year program consisting of nursing courses and some electives. In fulfillment of my requirements I will receive a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing.

LAURALEE HESS

DOUGLAS LERCH

This fall I plan to attend Michigan Technological University, located in Houghton Michigan. By studying in the engineering field, I hope to specialize in a four year course in Metallurgical Science.

Next fall I plan to attend Michigan State University. I shall be entering the field of Audiology and Speech Science. Later, I hope to be working with elementary children who have special speech and hearing problems.

PATRICIA BEEBE

ROSE RYAN

Throughout high school I have been taking up secretarial courses and am seriously planning for a job in this career. At the present time I don't plan to attend college. Algebra courses and Typing have been a favorite of mine.

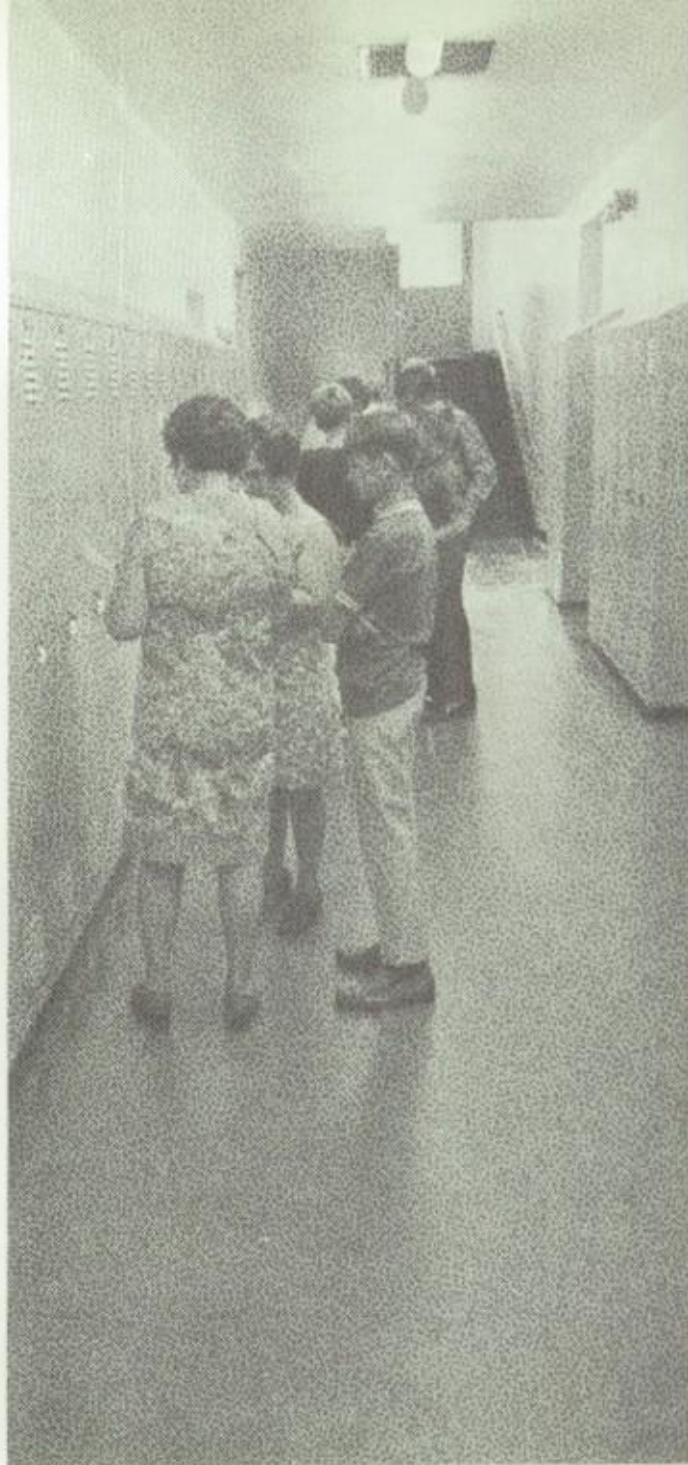

MARSHA PETERS

I plan to attend Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois. I will major in Christian Education. I've given a great deal of consideration to a career in mission work. My favorite subject throughout high school has been English.

FACULTY

CHARLES REDDING

CLAUDETTE BRANCH

CLIFFORD TRIPP

The faculty at Onsted consists of 32 teachers that attempt to prepare students in the social as well as the educational aspects of life. The majority of the teachers are working on Master's degrees; the students have benefited from these dedicated teachers.

The teachers that are on the following pages have put forth their best efforts to make the school system at Onsted one of the best. The teachers, under the leadership of the principal, have won the confidence and due respect of the students as a whole.

The senior class of '71 says, with deep appreciation, "Thanks."

...when I was a child I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have put away the childish things.

Bonnie, slopp excuse the writing but this bus is bumpy, well, who your a real cool girl who should go far in life, your personality is great too. Good luck in the future and God bless.
